A comic book illustration depicting a scene from the Bible. In the foreground, a man with a beard and a blindfold is being led by another man. The man with the blindfold is wearing a simple brown tunic and has his hands on the back of a donkey. The man leading him is wearing a blue tunic and a yellow head covering, and he is holding a sword. In the background, there are mountains and a large, colorful, swirling object in the sky. The scene is set in a desert-like environment.

A comic book panel featuring a close-up of a hand gripping a sword hilt. The hand is rendered in shades of brown and tan, with detailed shading to show muscle and texture. The sword hilt is wrapped in a light-colored material, possibly leather or cloth, with a dark blue or grey fabric strip around the base. In the background, the face of a man with a long, white beard and a turban is visible. He has a serious expression and is looking towards the left. The background is filled with diagonal hatching lines, creating a sense of depth and movement. A yellow speech bubble with a jagged, torn edge is positioned in the upper right quadrant, containing text in a stylized font.
